Friday - 23 March 1973

25X1

1. [redacted] Jerome Levinson, Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, called to ask that we pick up promptly a letter from Chairman Church to the Director requesting, on the unanimous vote of the Subcommittee, the appearance of Bill Broe in open session to testify under oath regarding [redacted]

25X1C

I later picked up the letter and delivered it to the Director.

In a subsequent telephone conversation, Levinson asked when he might expect a response and I said probably not before the first of the week. In response to my question, he said that all witnesses before the Subcommittee had testified under oath.

2. [redacted] In the absence of Representative Robert Daniel (R., Va.), I called his office and talked to his appointment secretary to say that Messrs. Houston, Warner and myself could not join him for lunch on Tuesday, 27 March, and suggested Friday, 30 March. She said he would be out of town at that time and I asked that he call me Monday to work out a date.

3. [redacted] Called Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, to inform him of Senator Church's letter to the Director requesting Bill Broe's appearance in open session of the Multinational Corporations Subcommittee on 28 March and to exchange views with Braswell on how this problem should be handled. See Memorandum for the Record.

25X1

4. [redacted] Called Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) to tell him of Senator Church's request and to get his suggestions for responding. See Memorandum for the Record.

- 25X1 5. [ ] Called Colgate Prentice, Deputy Assistant Secretary 25X1A of State for Congressional Relations, advising him of our upcoming meetings with Representative John Dellenback (R., Ore.) and Senator Mark Hatfield (R., Ore.) [ ] and that we would advise him of the outcome. It was agreed that under the circumstances a reply to the 16 March letter from these Congressmen by Secretary Rogers would be premature and hopefully unnecessary.
- 25X1 6. [ ] Walter Evans, Legislative Assistant to Senator 25X1A Mark Hatfield (R., Ore.), called saying the Senator was addressing another letter to the Director [ ] Apparently Evans was unaware of the scheduled meeting with Representative Dellenback on Monday and he agreed a similar meeting with Senator Hatfield would be in order and would obviate the need to send the letter. Such a meeting was scheduled for 11:30 a.m. on Monday, 26 March.
- 25X1 7. [ ] William Shaw, Chief Investigator, House 25X1A Internal Security Committee, called to indicate the Committee's interest in
[ ]
- 25X1 8. [ ] Phil Stanford, Legislative Assistant 25X1
25X1A to Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.) called and asked if the Congressman could be put on the mailing list for [ ] I checked with [ ] and reminded Stanford that there were a number of OOU items in the book which could not be made public. He said he understood and would respect the restrictions on those items. He also asked if we could provide him with as many back issues through 1 January as possible.
- 25X1 9. [ ] Talked to Wayne Birdsall, Secretary 25X1 25X1C of the reporting firm of Ward and Paul, who told me that transcripts of the 25X1A Senate Foreign Relations Committee [ ] hearings [ ] will not be available until some time late Saturday morning. After checking with [ ] WH Division, a continuing order was placed for the open hearings which will be continued Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week.
